McCLELLAN CHANGES MIND:

Hearst Forces Surprised by Anenscement that Mayor Will Fight Order for Recount of Ballots. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Bew York, Nov B.—Instead of submitting to the decision of Judge Amend that a recount shall be made of the votes in the ballot boxes of five districts already taken into court, it was made evident late today that Tammany Hall will contest the base by an appeal to all possible technical. It is the face of Mayor McClellan's state-ment of the day before that "at my re-quest. Judge Parker will make to appeal from Judge Amend's ruing," notice was served by Corporation Counsel Delany upon Mr. Hearst's counsel that the real lead beside is vet to come. on Mr. Hearst's counsel that the real al battle is yet to come.

If it it is yet to come.

If it is yeaking, the new move on beif of Mayor McCleilan will not be an oral from Judge Amend's order, but if resasful it will result in defeating a heach all hope of an actual recount of the litts in contested districts, unless higher will record the inner circle of Tamit's referee an adverse decision.

If all except the inner circle of Tamity attempts, the news that there had

CLELLAN CHANGES MIND: WILL CONTEST MAIN ISSUE.

Now. honever, before any such action can be begun, a local battle must be fought, which will probably not be determined until it is decided by the Court of Appeals. Whichever side is successful at first, it is evident that an appeal will be taken, which may defay a recount for another ten days or two weeks at least, and perhaps forever. other ten days or two weeks at least, and perhaps forever.

Both the comparison of the tally sheets with the returns and the impection of void and rectested ballots was completed to-day. It was stated by Ricory Youge of Mr. Hearst's coultsel that in the first twenty-ax assembly districts ground had been found for moving to open ballot bores in 42 districts because of irregularities.

A general meeting of the Illinois So-consider change of front name as a great surprise. Mr. Delary had let in be understood early in the day there would be an appeal in view of the position al-mady taken by the Nayor, and there
